

Key Points from the Lok Sabha Election Results June 2024

- 543 Parliamentary Constituencies, 175 Andhra Pradesh Assembly Constituencies, 147 Odisha Assembly Constituencies, and 25 Bye Elections are included in the election results.
- Shiv Prakash Ranjan, the candidate of the Communist Party of India (Marxist-Leninist) Liberation, won the election in Bihar's Agiaon constituency.
- The five constituencies in Gujarat that the Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) won were Vijapur, Porbandar, Manavadar, Khambhat, and Vaghodia.
- The Indian National Congress (INC) won in Gagret, Kutlehar, and Lahaul & Spiti, while the Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) won in Dharamshala, Lahaul & Spiti, Sujanpur, and Barsar constituencies in Himachal Pradesh.
- Kalpana Murmu Soren, a Jharkhand Mukti Morcha candidate, emerged victorious in the Gandey constituency in Jharkhand.
- Raja Venugopal Naik, the INC candidate, emerged victorious in the Shorapur constituency in Karnataka.
- The winner of Rajasthan's Bagidora seat was Jaikrishn Patel, a candidate for the Bharat Adivasi Party.
- The Samajwadi Party won in Gainsari and Duddhi, while the BJP won in Dadraul, Lucknow East, and Duddhi constituencies in Uttar Pradesh.
- The constituencies of Bhagabangola and Baranagar were won by the All India Trinamool Congress in West Bengal.
- In 46 of the 60 Assembly Constituencies in Arunachal Pradesh, the Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) is in the lead, followed by the Meghalaya National People's Party (NPEP) with five seats, Independents with three seats, and the Nationalist Congress Party (NCP) with three seats apiece.

Gyanendar Kumar Tiwari

RA2111003010339

gm1106@srmist.edu.in